How to Successfully Live Under a Homeowners Association

www.usnews.com

About 20 percent of Americans live in a community governed by a condo association, homeowners association or co-op board. However, almost a quarter of those residents have experienced a significant disagreement with their association. Whether you like or hate the rules that come with community association life, once you've bought or rented in an association, you've signed on and must learn how to successfully navigate association life.
